___ B.2. Activity Teacher. This is an opportunity to teach an engaging activity of your choice, flexible times between 1:00-3:00. We would love to have projects that last one week (Monday through Thursday), but some activities might only be one or two days. Past activities include art, nature/gardening, musical performance, and writing a book. Attendance at a training session is highly recommended. You will be notified of options for attending training.

Please describe the activity you would like to teach. _____

What days & dates are you available to teach? (Monday - Thursday, June 5 - July 13) Teaching time is 1:00 - 3:00. We typically like to have three 45 minute rotations of 15 students. Please indicate how many hours a day and how many days you expect your project/activity to last.

___ B.4. Donate Snacks. The children are served snacks every day. ENHE asks for snack donations that are fairly healthy and that the children will find enticing. Please do not bring anything with peanuts as we typically have some students who are allergic.

To donate, please place a checkmark beside B.4. Drop off your donations, labeled "ENHE", between now and June 8th at the reception desk at:

St. Ann's Episcopal Church
419 Woodland St.
Nashville, TN 37206

___ B.5. Field Trips. If you would like to chaperone a field trip, please check the appropriate box below.

_____ Friday, June 9 Field Trip

_____ Friday, June 16 Field Trip

_____ Friday, June 23 Field Trip

_____ Friday, June 30 Field Trip

_____ Friday, July 7 Field Trip

Ameshica Linsey, ENHE Executive Director, 419 Woodland St., Nashville, TN 37206

B.6. Family Engagement Events. ENHE relies upon volunteers to provide and serve the food at family engagement events and to help clean-up. Each event has a team leader to coordinate volunteers. You will be contacted by someone with dates and other specific information.

Dates TBD

B.7. Materials Prep. Periodically, ENHE staff need help preparing materials for classroom activities. Volunteers who check this box will be contacted on an as-needed basis to see if they can help when volunteers are needed.
